Newberry, SC is a friendly community of 38,000 people located in the upstate of South Carolina. This rural community is adjacent to I-26 which connects to two interstates in Columbia, SC, our states capital and to Spartanburg. The area is surrounded by beautiful lakes including Lake Murray and Lake Greenwood, that add 150 miles of shoreline to the county. Recreational activities include the newly renovated Newberry Opera House, country clubs, and Dreher Island State Park. Newberry also offers fine dining and shopping with 18 antique shops. This town is home to Newberry College, a 4 year liberal arts college that offers 25 different majors and also has 15 NCAA Division II athletic teams for men and women. This lovely small town has so much to offer to residents in the community.

Self Regional Medical Center is a 414-bed regional referral center. A 224-bed patient tower opened in August 2006. The hospital is also home to a 27-resident family medicine teaching program. Self Regional is recognized with five-star ratings from HealthGrades® in 2008-09 for overall orthopedic services, joint replacement and total knee replacement. The hospital received the Orthopedic Surgery Excellence Award™ and is ranked among the top 10 percent in the nation for overall services. Self is top-ranked in South Carolina and in the top 5 percent nationally for neurosurgery, earning the state's Spine Surgery Excellence Award™. Self Regional has five-star ratings in spine surgery, and back and neck surgery (both fusion and non-fusion). The hospital was named one of the world's top 20 "Great Workplaces" by the Gallup organization in 2008. The medical staff is comprised of more than 200 physicians representing 40-plus specialties and subspecialties.
